

1.1.2020

BAS requires its members and certification holders to conduct themselves ethically by:

- a) Avoiding conflict of interest.
- b) Avoiding unfair competition with others.
- c) Being honest and impartial in serving the public, employers, and customers.
- d) Perform services only in their areas of competence.
- e) Using their knowledge and skill for serving their societies.
- f) Act in a professional manner in dealings with staff, employer, and customer.
- g) Assure that credit for the work of others is given to those to whom it is due.
- h) Continue their professional development throughout their careers.
- i) Provide opportunities for the professional and ethical development of others.
- j) Hold paramount the safety, health, and welfare of the interested parties in the performance of their professional duties.

